

I have heard rumours that the imputation system will be abolished.

If this happened, the results would be horrendous.

Investors in Australian shares, many of them self-funded retirees, would see their incomes drop and the returns of superannuation funds would fall because they would no longer have access to imputation credits.

Worse, we would face double taxation again.

Please keep me informed of any proposed changes to the current system.

Regards

Maree Ford