

To whom it may concern:

We are two self funded retirees who totally oppose the muted changes to the dividend imputation system.

Self funded retirees are poorly treated by the government in all ways including recent stimulus package payments and there are a lot of us and I think we could say that all are disgruntled and we vote.

Please give this matter fair serious thought before making the proposed changes.

Yours faithfully,

Denise Kent and Phillip Kingsbury
[removed for privacy reasons]