

Mr. Zona Severn

[removed for privacy reasons]

I am a self funded retiree. Those of us that retired in the 1990's did not have the current options of placing our Superannuation into a tax free environment. This should be taken into consideration in the reforming of the tax system. There has also been some commentary on the possibility of removing the imputation credits system. This will drive many more of us to apply for the State Pension.