

I am a self funded, [removed for privacy reasons] year old retiree and rely on dividends and capital growth for income.

I would be unhappy should this Govt. revert to the old system of double taxation by taxing my dividends. This is only a rumour at this stage but unless you want every-one in the country on the old age pension and taking funds under Newstart until we turn [removed for privacy reasons] yrs I would quash the idea.