

To Whom it may concern

We have structured our retirement income around franking (imputation) taxation credit refunds. It would not be possible to reorganise our income and taxation affairs satisfactorily if something was done to upset the current imputation system. We would be strongly opposed to changes.

Warren & Isabel Wright
[removed for privacy reasons]