

I urge you to abolish the GST. It's effect is to increase the costs of goods that has dramatic consequences of increasing the cost of living, which in turn has drastic consequences for the poor.

I also urge you to reduce income tax. The current levels have a stifling effect upon the populace.

Yours faithfully
Charles Stanford