

* Please support international implementation of the Currency Transaction Development Levy (CTDL) that would tax the richest market of all, the trade in foreign exchange, worth a staggering $3,200 billion daily.

* Reversal of the trend to lower corporate and personal income taxes, a trend that has benefited the rich at the expense of the poor over the past decade and has degraded the level of services to taxpayers.

* Negotiate with the states to index motor vehicle taxes in relation to the amount of carbon they emit. The German Government has done thus already must we always be followers, how about being leaders for a change.

* Review Panel, check out the October issue of the New Internationalist Magazine for background information on these suggestions. If you are really concerned with what the public thinks about taxation you could look at the magazine's tax justice blog.

Jill Young