

Dear Sir or Madam

I would like to urge the Government to carefully and seriously consider making the following changes to the Australian Taxation System.

It would like to urge:

* Australian Government support for international implementation of the Currency Transaction Development Levy (CTDL) that would tax the richest market of all, the trade in foreign exchange, worth a staggering $3,200 billion daily.

* A reversal of the trend to lower corporate and personal income taxes, a trend that has benefited the rich at the expense of the poor over the past decade.

* A consideration of the following.

The German Government has decided to revamp its motor vehicle tax so that in future the rate depends on the amount of carbon emitted from exhausts. I want to urge the taxation review to recommend the Australian Government negotiate a similar arrangement with the States.

* The Australian Government to do more to stop wealthy Australians from using tax havens to avoid their responsibilities.

Please consider my email with all seriousness, so that Australia becomes positive in its pro-activity and responsibility in light of the world market economy and other important issues which address global poverty and associated needs.

Your sincerely

Maggie Dunnill
